Sample Optional shore excursions~

Just a few of the incredible experiences you may choose to enjoy....

SOUK AND BLUE DOOR CUISINE EXPERIENCE (TANGIER, MOROCCO)

Learn the secrets of Moroccan cuisine during a memorable cooking class and lunch at the Blue Door Hotel Cooking Classroom. This includes a tour of the Grand Socco market, an inspiring cookery lesson, then the chance to enjoy the aromatic dishes you prepared.

THE MIGHTY ALHAMBRA PALACE & GARDENS (MOTRIL, GRANADA)

Granada's most famous landmark, this spectacular complex of buildings, courtyards and cupolas represents the zenith of Moorish architecture. Step inside the Alqala hamra (red castle) and visit the Nazaries Palace, with intricately carved stucco walls, knotted ceilings, elaborate honeycomb vaulting, and beautiful courtyards. See the Serallo (official residence of the Sultan), and the harem that surrounds the famous Patio de Los Leones with fountains feeding water through the mouths of 12 lions. Stroll around the Generalife, a garden residence built as a summer paradise, with terraces, grottoes, flowerbeds and fountains.

AIGUES MORTES (SÈTE, FRANCE)

This fortified city in the heart of the Petite Camargue was built in the 13th century within a landscape of ponds, sea marshes, and salt pans, originally serving as a departure harbour for the crusades of St Louis. Its Constance Tower, one of the most majestic pieces of architecture from medieval times served as a lookout post to fend off the Saracens. Enjoy a guided walking tour which will cover the history of the town, then set out to explore this charming town at your leisure.

A WALK-THROUGH MAHON WITH TASTY TAPAS (MAHON, MENORCA)

Enjoy a guided tour through the old city with its narrow-cobbled streets, boutiques and Gothic churches then stroll to a tapas restaurant to enjoy a taste of typical and delicious Menorcan fare.

THE ALHAMBRA PALACE, GRANADA

SEABOURN CONVERSATIONS – with UNESCO expert Alessandra Borchì (20 April cruise)

With an academic background from Paris-Sorbonne University, Alessandra has been working for UNESCO, since 2005. Starting her career at the World Heritage Centre, where she conducted monitoring missions to over 300 World Heritage sites all over the world, she then moved to the field, managing UNESCO's culture programmes in Afghanistan and in Tanzania. After serving in the executive office of the assistant director-general for culture for two years, she became coordinator of UNESCO emergency response operations. Alessandra Borchì is Italian but also speaks English, French and Spanish.

YOUR INCLUDED EVENT

Dinner and Flamenco at Villa Luisa

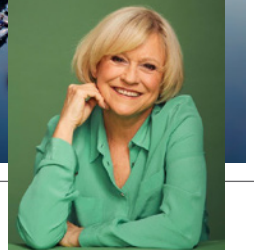

Travel to Villa Luisa, a historic private house set within the heart of Seville founded by German Argentine musician Herman Bemberg Ocampo, where some of the most fascinating personalities of the literary and artistic world gathered in the early 20th century. Just a few of the incredible experiences you may choose to enjoy....

THE FRENCH EXPRESSIONISTS OF COLLIOURE (PORT-VENDRES, FRANCE)

Fauvism was an early 20th-century art movement characterised by its explosion of colour. Follow your guide in the footsteps of two French expressionist painters, Matisse and Derain, who lived and painted in this pretty fishing village, drawing inspiration from Gauguin and Van Gogh. Then stroll among the local shops, cafés and many art galleries.

LE CASTELLET & WINE TASTING (TOULON, FRANCE)

A typical Provencal hilltop village, perched on the edge of a cliff, Le Castellet feels like a 15th-century fortified hamlet, with ancient ramparts, narrow cobblestone streets and houses adorned with climbing bougainvillea. At the Domaine de Souviou Winery, set among ancient olives and with its adjacent chapel, you'll taste some local wines, including the Bandol labels.

LIVING LOCAL, A TASTE OF CINQUE TERRE PESTO (PORTOVENERE, ITALY)

Navigate by small vehicle the winding and picturesque roads above the villages of Cinque Terre, pausing en-route for stunning views of three of the Cinque Terre villages. At the local wine-producers association, sample three different local wines, then sample a dish of Trenette al Pesto, made using fresh ingredients grown on terraces toed into the hillside.
